COUNTY FAIR

Will be Held at Louisa October 9th, 10th and 11th.

You may have forgotten the date, and the NEWS calls your attention to the fact that the Lawrence County Fair will begin Thursday, October 9—one week from next Thursday. The NEWS also hopes that very many of our citizens and "citizenesses" have been preparing something to exhibit during the three days of the fair, which will last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The thousands of NEWS readers in this section have read the premium list, a very comprehensive one, generous in its list of prizes. Almost every line of possible exhibits have been provided for, and every family in this and the adjoining counties is making a special effort to have something to show. Be assured of one thing: Every exhibitor will get a square deal. No favoritism will be shown. The judges for every class will be selected for their knowledge and ability, and as far as possible, he kept a secret until after the awards have been made so that all articles may be judged on their merits.

The Lawrence County Agricultural Society will hold a meeting at the court house on Saturday, the 27th, the last to be held before the fair. A large attendance is desired, not only of members but of our citizens generally. Come out and discuss the fair, talk "shop" and have a good neighborly time.

One exhibit in particular which will be a feature in the coming Lawrence county fair should be witnessed and carefully noted by every farmer who owns a hog. The NEWS refers to the practical demonstration to be made by experts from the Agricultural Extension Department of the State college. These men, skilled in everything connected with animal husbandry, are coming fully prepared to show, by inoculating the living hog with anti-cholera serum, what it is possible to do in the way of stopping and preventing the ravages of this extremely fatal disease. This procedure is not vaunted as a cure for hog cholera—it may be well doubted if one exists—but it does prevent. It locks the stable door before the horse is stolen, as it were. The demonstrators will bring with them a number of hogs which have died of cholera, pointing out how the disease affects the animal. They will show, practically, how easily the work of inoculation can be done. Some of the farmers of this section have announced their intention to have their hogs made cholera proof; in this manner showing their faith in the efficacy of the treatment. This is but one feature of what will, beyond question, be the best fair ever held in Lawrence county.

BEAVER CREEK RAILROAD.

C. & O. Branch Almost Completed in Record Breaking Time.

In the construction of the Beaver Creek branch of the C. & O. railroad the contractors have broken some records. They are all ahead of the time specified in their contracts and they have done the work in shorter time than any similar piece of work has been finished. It is said, east of the Rocky mountains, the rails are now being laid and trains will be running within five or six weeks, unless some delay should occur from unforeseen causes.

Towns are being built; mines opened and tipples constructed on upper Beaver creek. All this work is being pushed to the limit in order to start coal shipments as soon as possible. The property that is being developed belongs to the Elkhorn Fuel company, the large corporation organized last winter by J. C. C. Mayo and others.

OPERATION AT RIVERVIEW.

On Tuesday last Mrs. Lucien Maynard, whose home is on the left fork of Twelve Pole, Wayne-co., submitted to a serious operation for relief from an abdominal trouble of long standing. There were numerous complications which made the operation long and difficult. It was done by Dr. York, assisted by Drs. Bromley, Fulkerson and Wellman. The patient is doing as well as could be expected.

FRATERNAL GREETING.

At the Sunday evening service of the M. E. Church South the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Keith, read a letter of cordial welcome and fraternal greeting from the Methodist Episcopal Church. The letter was duly appreciated.

SEVERAL DEATHS

Have Occurred in this Vicinity Within the Past Week.

Again has this county been called to sorrow because of the death of one of her most substantial and worthy citizens. Mr. James Adams, who died at the home of his son, Monroe Adams, on Little Blaine about nine miles from Louisa. He had been in a feeble condition for some years on account of paralysis and his death, although a shock to the entire community, was not unexpected. He died peacefully, passing from the cares and ills of earthly life to the rest of a blessed immortality without a struggle. He died on Friday, September 18th, and on the following afternoon he was buried where he had lived so long and so well. A large throng attended the obsequies, testifying by their presence to their great respect for the man and his memory. Mr. Adams was nearly seventy years old. He was born in Lawrence county, had lived in it all his life, and left it with no blot or stain to mar character or his reputation for strict integrity. He was a useful citizen, a Christian, a generous helper of the poor, sober and industrious. The taking off of such a man leaves a gap hard to fill. Numerous kin are left to mourn the loss of so good a relative. He had lived a widower many years, but grown children survive their honored father. With the half brothers and sisters there are three of the former and two of the latter still living. One of the brothers, Arthur, is a twin. Mr. Will Adams, of Louisa, is a half brother.

Death Of Worthy Young Man.

Harmon Daniels, aged 28 years and single, died Sunday last at Riverview hospital after an illness of several weeks caused by typhoid fever. On the same day the body was taken to the home of his father, Jackson Daniels, at Charley, where interment was held on Monday.

Mr. Daniels was working in Catlettsburg when he was taken sick. He came here and went to the hospital, quite sick from the start. The disease assumed a severe form and there was not much hope of recovery. Perforation of the bowels occurred and death soon followed. Mr. Daniels was a worthy, sober, industrious and of good habits. His untimely death is much deplored by many neighbors and friends. He was a native of Dr. Walter, of this city.

JOHNSON CO. MAN DEAD.

W. A. Wells, aged 70 years, died suddenly at his home at Boone's Camp on the night of Friday, Sept. 18th. He had gone to bed feeling as well as usual, when not long afterwards he was heard groaning. One of his sons went to him and asked him if he was sick and if he could not get to bed. He said no, but in a short time he suddenly became worse and in a few minutes died without a struggle. Interment was made on Sunday last in the presence of the largest gathering of people ever seen in Johnson county. The funeral was conducted by Rev. H. B. Hewlett, whose wife is a niece of the deceased.

Mr. Wells was one of the best as well as one of the best known men in Johnson county. He lived a blameless life and his death was triumphant.

Heart trouble was the cause of his demise.

The two years old child of A. J. Austin died Sunday at Ulysses.

William Saters Garland, aged 18 months, grandson of H. B. Saters, died recently near Yatesville.

Mrs. Lucinda Clarkson died last week at the home of her son, John Clarkson, near Busseyville.

The Greenbrier Baptist Association was held on Tuesday, at the mouth of Greenbrier creek, Wayne county, on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The attendance was very large.

SERIOUS OPERATION.

On Sunday last Mrs. J. B. Spencer, who has been very ill for several weeks, and who has been in had health for a considerable time, submitted to a very serious and difficult operation for relief. On Friday last Dr. Keller, of Ironton, came to see her and diagnosed the trouble as one caused by gall stones. He returned to Ironton and came again to Louisa on Sunday, with Dr. Marting and a trained nurse, Miss Sarah McKuley, of Huntington. As soon as possible Mrs. Spencer was prepared for the operation, which was done by Drs. Keller and Marting, assisted by Dr. Bromley, of this city, and Dr. L. S. Hays, of Charley. The operation was successful, and several large stones were removed. Mrs. Spencer rallied from the anaesthetic and at this hour she is doing well. Her many friends earnestly hope for her complete recovery.

A sharp contention has arisen between the B. & O. and C. & O. railroads over the right of way for the newly proposed line up Beaver creek, in Floyd-co. Both companies, it is said, have purchased real estate along the proposed route and both have large parties of engineers on the ground for the purpose of locating a grade. The outcome of this will very probably be a suit before the Floyd circuit court to determine who is properly entitled to the right of way up the left fork of the creek.—Paintsville Herald.

KENTUCKY COAL MINES.

Output For 1912 2,440,818 Tons Over That of 1911.

Washington, Sept. 21—The production of coal in Kentucky established a new record in 1912 with a total production of 16,499,521 short tons, according to Edward W. Parker, coal statistician of the United States Geological Survey. This large output represented an increase of 2,440,818 tons over the figures for 1911, and of nearly 2,000,000 tons over the former maximum output of 1910. There was an even greater increase in value in 1912, namely, $2,845,749 over the figures of 1911. The increased production in Kentucky was due chiefly to new developments in the eastern part of the State, particularly in the western counties participated largely in the gain.

The number of men employed in the coal mines of the State in 1912 was 115,000, and the average production per man 678 tons. Kentucky ranks second among the States in the percentage of coal produced by machines, Ohio holding first place. In 1912, 66 per cent. of the coal produced was machine mined.

Labor troubles in the State were insignificant during the year, but according to the U. S. Bureau of Mines there were fifty-one fatalities and about the mines, forty-one underground, two in shafts and eight on the surface.

Kentucky is the only one of the coal-producing States which has within its borders areas belonging to any two of the distinctly separate great coal fields. The eastern counties of the State are underlain by the coal beds of the great Appalachian Mountain system, extending entirely across the State in a northeast-southwest direction while the southern limits of the central or eastern interior coal fields are found in the more northern counties of the western part of the State. The total area underlain by coal in the eastern counties of Kentucky is estimated at 10,270 square miles, and the coal-bearing areas in the western part of the State are estimated to contain 6,400 square miles.

Up to the close of 1911 the larger part of the production of the State had been from the western district, but as a result of extensive developments in Harlan, Johnson, Letcher and Pike counties, the larger part of the coal production in 1912 was from the eastern part of the State. The Eastern Kentucky coals are mostly high-grade "gas" or "coking" coals, with some cannel coal.

"RED MEN"

Held a Big Meeting at Louisa on Last Monday.

The local event of the week was the annual meeting of the District Lodge of Red Men which was held in this city on Monday last. The attendance was very large, nearly two hundred members being present. The District represented is a large one, numbering many counties from Lewis to Pike. Formerly each congressional district formed a Red Men's district, but recently this arrangement has been changed. Many delegates arrived in Louisa on Sunday and on Monday morning each train brought a number of delegates, and many coming in bugles and on horseback. A public order was held in the forenoon at the court house and was largely attended. Bro. H. C. Sullivan, of this city, made a fine address of welcome from the local fraternity and the town, and Bro. the Rev. C. B. Plummer, of the churches. This was the only public service—the other sessions of the Lodge being held in the Junior Order hall and in Odd Fellows hall. At these meetings the routine business of the meeting was transacted and was of interest only to the fraternity. The reports from the various lodges showed most of them to be in a flourishing condition. On Monday night the lodge met in Odd Fellows hall, where the secret work of the order was exemplified by Grand Sachem Charles E. Davis, of Newport. Grand Keeper of Records J. M. Holstner, of Louisville, was also present. Sachem L. S. Hays, of Charley, presided at this meeting, with Jay Roberts, of Louisa, Secretary. The session closed at half past eleven o'clock. The visiting delegates were hospitably entertained by local members and expressed much pleasure at their kind reception.

B. M. J.

The Business Men's League met at the court house last Tuesday evening. Several prominent business men were present and several subjects of much importance to our people were discussed. Among these are a public reading room and good roads. The League will meet again next Tuesday night at 7 o'clock, and everybody having the betterment of the town at heart is urged to attend. These meetings, and it has been said by more than one prominent citizen that if the Nora Kemmison Literary Club will honor the next meeting with its presence it will be cordially received and helped in its efforts for a cleaner Louisa.

AGREEABLY SURPRISED.

Some people we know are not fond of surprises, but Rev. and Mrs. Keith are not of the number. On Monday night last many members of pastor Keith's church, the M. E. Church South, with others of the city, visited the parsonage, all taking something of use to any family and particularly to a couple just beginning housekeeping. Edibles composed the bulk of the generous offerings, and they were there in great profusion and variety. The recipients will certainly have a sweet time for awhile, at least, for seventy pounds of sugar is quite a lot of saccharine matter. The occasion was characteristic of our people and was enjoyed by all present.

THE NEW PASTOR.

Rev. B. M. Keith, the new pastor of the M. E. Church South, made a very favorable impression last Sunday. He preached to good-sized audiences both morning and evening and all had something complimentary to say about the sermons. The church looks forward to a profitable year with the help of Rev. Keith and his accomplished wife.

HAVE GONE EAST.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. D. Wallace, Sr., left Thursday morning on a trip east. They will stop for a day or two at Atlantic City and then go to Hartford, N. Y. They will be gone about four weeks.

KENTUCKY OIL.

An interesting feature of Eastern Kentucky operations just now is the effort to connect the Kentucky and West Virginia districts. Developments have been carried on intermittently in counties of the Big Sandy Valley all summer, and several good leads have been made. On the Virginia side, close to the Kentucky border, greater progress has been made in proving productive areas, and if the test work in Kentucky should prove satisfactory it will open the way for widespread drilling in a territory now located far from any productive districts.

The three established districts of Eastern Kentucky, including Wayne, Morgan and Wolfe, and the Lawrence county pool, in the northeastern end, continue to show the usual activity. Four new wells are credited to Wayne, one being a failure. Morgan county contributed two medium-sized producers to the week's new production, while a well of good capacity is reported from Wolfe. In these fields, where most of the work in Eastern Kentucky is centered, good rains the latter part of the week were welcomed by the operators, who have been to much extra expense in keeping an adequate water supply on hand.

Kentucky's crude oil production has shown a gradual increase all summer, last month's output being the largest in 2 years, totaling 50,000 barrels. The crude oil in reserve has been steadily drawn upon, there now being in storage 74,000 barrels, as compared with 200,000 barrels at this time last year.—Courier-Journal.

BIG DEAL IN COAL.

Whitesburg, Ky.—Another deal involving several thousand acres of rich coal and timber lands lying along Carr's Fork, Knott-co., immediately beyond the Letcher line, has been made by the Little Syndicate, at a price said to be unusually large. This completes a series of about 10,000 acres of Carr's Fork having been bought up by the Little Syndicate. It is understood that the Lexington and Eastern will be induced to build a fifteen-mile branch road up Carr's Fork in order to make the development of the property.

CONFEDERATE PENSIONS.

Another Batch of East Kentuckians Put on Payroll.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 22.—The pension claims have been allowed by the State Pension Board to participate in the November distribution, when they will receive back pay from the date of their several applications:

Henry M. Webb, Letcher; William E. Weiman, Boyd; Elizabeth A. Alton, Lawrence; Mrs. Ethel S. Wilson, Lawrence; Sulphena Vaughan, Lawrence; Wm. H. Vest, Floyd; John Thompson, Pike; Daniel Saralt, Johnson; Arch Scalf, Floyd; Melfie Sexton, Letcher; Verlan Sexton, Letcher; Albert F. Vears, Carter; Minerva Sloan, Knott; Jason Sloan, Knott; Lewis Skaggs, Johnson; Laudy Sloan, Knott; Jas. Vaughan, Knott; Herman Wright, Pike; Rachael Suaher, Floyd; P. O. Sturdevant, Knott; Wm. H. Sildham, Lawrence; Anna Stamper, Knott; Wm. Stapleton, Floyd; Milton Stevenson, Lawrence; Matilda Spears, Johnson; Susan D. Smith, Knott; James H. Smith, Morgan; Susie Smith, Knott.

The above named are all from this part of the State.

Judge Hannah's Secretary.

C. L. Miller, of this place, has been appointed secretary to Judge J. B. Hannah, of the Kentucky Court of Appeals. He went to Frankfort Wednesday to enter upon the work. Mr. Miller is a bright young lawyer and an expert stenographer, a combination that is very desirable for the kind of a position he is taking.

IT'S A BOY.

Born, Thursday, Sept. 25, to Chas. York and wife, a son. There's joy in the houses of York and Kirk.

No man is Stronger Than his Stomach

The Medical Adviser by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., answers hosts of delicate questions about which every man or woman, single or married ought to know. Sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay for wrapping and mailing.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

helps the stomach to digest food properly, starts the liver into new activity, removing the poisons from the blood, and the various organs get rich, red blood, instead of being ill-nourished. The refreshing influence of this extract of native medicinal plants has been favorably known for over 40 years. Everywhere some neighbor can tell you of the good it has done.

Sold by all medicine dealers in liquid or tablet form, or send 50 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and a trial box will be mailed you.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLUMN DEDICATED TO THREE MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIME.

Writing Home.

The following is a true incident that came under our observation and may be suggestive to some:

A young man employed in a city had not written home in 4 months not even to his mother. His mother reproached him bitterly for his neglect.

He lived in the country on a farm, and his letters were an event of their lives. "You ought to be ashamed of yourself to treat your relatives like that," said a lady to him. "Well I know I ought, at least I suppose I ought."

I've been here in town three years. I work as hard as I can and watch every opportunity to better myself honestly, and I really think I am getting on. I need something cheerful and lightening to my life out of work hours. But, if you will believe me, in all the three years years I've been here I've never once had a letter from home which did not contain bad news or doleful and depressing thoughts that made me blue for days. It's got so I dread to open a letter with the home postmark upon it. Every item of disease that affects any of the family, even to a toothache, is poured into me. Every letter is full of moaning about poverty or the failure of crops the quarrelsomeness of this or that neighbor, the dread of a mortgage on the farm, the creeping of age and helplessness of my mother and father, and threatened illness of old Great-uncle Jehosaphat, the fear that brother Ned is taking to drink or that sister Mary is going to marry that no account Tom Bradley. If there is nothing else there's a gathering up of all the scandal garbage in the country, and it's unloaded on me. I can't stand it any longer. Mother's letters are so doleful and miserable and full of anxious graveyard forebodings that they almost make me laugh some times in spite of myself.

That's why I stopped writing home.

There is a great deal said about

It may cool us off these hot days to think about cold weather. For instance, it was so cold in the winter of 1882 that two sundogs froze to death and a farmer took their hides and made a fur coat for himself.

In 1883 one of our neighbors had a night mare, but she froze her feet so badly that she shed her hoofs. In 1861 some people's veranda froze so hard that it has never thawed out.

making home attractive, so the young people will not want to wander away from them; but it is a private opinion one hardly dares to express, that there is too much being done for young America in the well-to-do classes; they are coddled and humored and given places while the parents take the rough ones, until the parlor has come to be looked upon as their orbit, while the mother "lives and moves and has her being" in the kitchen.

The girl with a sweet little voice need not feel discouraged because she has no opportunity to sing in grand opera. She can give great pleasure by being a songbird in the home nest. Or if she has a knack with her brush or pencil, let her artistic tendencies full sway in making her home pretty.

Don't Let Baby Suffer with Eczema And Skin Eruptions.

Babies need a perfect skin-covering. Skin eruptions cause them not only intense suffering, but hinder their growth. DR. HOBSON'S ECZEMA OINTMENT can be relied on for relief and permanent cure of suffering babies whose skin eruptions have made their life miserable. "Our baby was afflicted with breaking out of the skin all over the face and scalp. Doctors and skin specialists failed to help. We tried Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment and were overjoyed to see baby completely cured before one box was used," writes Mrs. Strubler, Duquoin, Iowa. All druggists, or by mail, 50c.

PERFECTION CHEMICAL CO. St. Louis, Mo. Philadelphia, Pa.

One of Lawrence county's best citizens and a prominent business man of Adams suddenly passed away. Some years ago, Mr. Adams was stricken with paralysis from which he never fully recovered, and on last Tuesday morning he had another stroke and died Sept. 18th, at the home of his son, Monroe Adams, and was laid to rest in the family grave yard the following day to await the time when Christ says all shall come forth. A very large concourse of his neighbors and friends with sorrowing hearts attended the funeral. His four children, Isaac and Monroe Adams, both of Adams, Mrs. Turz Thompson, of Ellen, and Mrs. Dock Prince, of Irad, were almost constantly by the bedside of their aged father during his short illness. The death of this good man is not only a shock to the children and near relatives, but the whole community mourns the loss of him who for many years had responded to the call of those who needed help. We believe that on the eve of his death as the soul of Mr. Adams left the tabernacle of clay the God whom he served spoke to him saying "enter into the rest prepared for you from the foundation of the world, for in yonder's world I was sick and in prison and you visited me; hungry and you fed me, naked and you clothed me; and you gave me drink; for in as much as you did it unto the least of these, my brethren, you did it unto me."

Mr. Adams will be greatly missed in our Sunday school. For several months he has attended regularly. Mr. Adams was born and raised in Lawrence county. Was married three times, his last wife the widow of Wm. Hays, who died about three years ago. He was successful in accumulating a comfortable living. He had lived out the allotted time to man, three-score years and ten. Of him we can truly say, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them." We only hope that the mantle of his spotless character will fall on the shoulders of his children and grand children and in the sweet bye and hve, they will meet where parting words are never spoken. Bryan Tells a Funny Story

In the October American Magazine Charles Dillon writes an article entitled "Humors of the Courts." It is really a collection of funny true stories about experiences of lawyers. The following is a story told by William Jennings Bryan:

"Five Irishmen, the Peerless One said, had been charged with assault with intent to kill. The state tried to prove the disturbance began at ten o'clock at night. Dennis, one of the accused, sought to show by a witness that he was at home and in bed with him and did not get up until long after the trouble was over."

"How do you know that Dennis was in bed by eight o'clock," the district attorney inquired.

"Hain't we a clock in the house? the witness retorted.

"Oh, and did the clock strike after Dennis came in?"

"Well, no; the clock wasn't striking then."

"What was the matter with it?"

"It had been out of order for a few days."

"Then if the clock was not going, how do you know that Dennis was in bed eight o'clock?"

"Well," the witness replied, after a moment's studying, "I know he was in before the time when the clock strikes eight, when it do be striking."

"But Dennis was convicted."

CORDELL.

Sunday school is progressing nicely at this place. Several from here attended the association at Lewisville Saturday.

Fred Steele was calling on Ellen Gambill Sunday.

Andrew Cordle was calling on Mary Osborne Sunday.

We seriously object to women suffragettes being allowed to speak on the suffrage question at the Teachers Institute. It has no more place there than a tariff discussion or any other political issue.—Elizabeth News.

Louisville's eleventh annual State Fair closed with the announcement by Commissioner Newman that while the total attendance for the week was probably no greater than 86,000, the event financially would be an even break, at least.

Attorneys for Harry K. Thaw were taken unawares in their flight before Gov. Felker for their client's liberty when Attorney Jerome, for New York, announced that an indictment had been found charging Thaw with conspiracy. Thaw's attorneys were given until Monday to file briefs.

With John McDyer in the Legislature this district will be on the map at Frankfort next winter. Roads will be the leading subject before the General Assembly and there will be few if any Representatives who know as much about it as Mr. McDyer. His knowledge of the subject will naturally put him in the lead.

The joy of motherhood assuaged the grief of a woman over the death of her husband, when Mrs. Bruce Merrick, 27 years old, Chicago, gave birth to a baby boy while on her way home from Mount Greenwood Cemetery following the burial of her husband. Mrs. Merrick became ill in her carriage a few moments after the funeral cortege had left the Cemetery.

Hon. J. Howard Williams has served two terms in the Legislature and therefore has the experience and standing necessary to make him a valuable member of the State Senate. He made an honorable record in the lower House and is now asking for promotion. Greenup, a normally Republican county, elected him to the Democratic ticket. That shows his high standing among his home people, which is the best recommendation that can be given any man. He will be on the ballot in November in the counties of Boyd, Greenup, Lawrence and Elliott. He is a man of the people and stands for their interests.

EXPENSIVE REAL ESTATE.

Whitesburg, Ky.—Real estate values throughout the Eastern Kentucky coal fields especially the Boone's Fork and Elkhoru Creek sections of this county, have reached the sky-lark limit owing to the great strides of development taking place. In the Letcher circuit court here a remarkable condemnation suit is now in progress. About five years ago the Northern Coal and Coke Co., bought of John Bentley a small tract of land lying about the present heart of Jenkins, but then practically a wilderness. Bentley reserved one acre of level land. About three years ago when the Northern Coal and Coke Co., transferred the property to the Consolidation Coal Co., and the latter company was making plans to build a city, they found that the Bentley acre was about the center of their operations, and immediately set about to purchase it. Their first offer was something less than $5,000. Bentley remaining deaf to the situation, was offered $10,000, $15,000 and even $25,000.

Failing to accept the $25,000 nothing was left but to immediately enter condemnation proceedings. About this time, in order to enhance the value of his property, Bentley built a large store and stocked it full of goods.

The Consolidation Coal Co., in their proceedings claimed that it was absolutely necessary for them to have the acre of land for railroad siding purposes for the Big Sandy and Elkhorn railroad. Bentley in his pleadings, denies, this and contends that it is not necessary for them to have his property for railroad purposes, but that the condemnation proceedings were for the purpose of getting his property and putting him out of business, there being no other merchandise stores in the city except those operated by the company.

Bentley says as there is no other property in Jenkins for sale there is no market value to go by as to fix the amount of compensation that he should receive for this acre of land, and that he should be able to produce the amount of business he is doing with the seven or eight thousand miners and others now in the city, and to show that the coal companies are opening up other mines which will bring at least that many more to the district within the next few months, each of whom will make from $3 to $5.50 per day a great part of which will be spent there.

Bentley states that he is selling now from $300 to $500 worth of goods a day. He also claims that he can build no less than six stores on the acre, which he can easily rent for $1,000 a year, which would be but 6 per cent of $100,000 and that he has already been offered $48,000 time and again, so Bentley is asking that he be paid $100,000 for his acre holding.

It is said that a jury in the Letcher circuit court awarded Bentley $42,000 for his holdings.

NOTES FROM THE OIL FIELD.

Everything is "on the boom" in the Cannel City oil field, and judging from the preparations being made, work is to be pushed more in the next few months than it has been in the past. The field seems to be widening out to the west, and development to the eastward is only beginning.

The Watson well which was drilled in east of Cannel City by M. L. Conley is making 6 barrels a day. The well being drilled by Benedum and Trees, of Pittsburgh, on White Oak, will open up a large territory as this location is several miles east of Cannel City.

The Ohio Fuel Co., has leased the farm of Mrs. Susan Lykins, on Brushy Fork, and expect to begin operations at once.

The Kentucky Block Cannel Coal Co.'s well No. 6 was drilled in and shot Saturday and made a good showing. This will make four producing oil wells and one gas well for this company out of six wells drilled.

L. M. Haney No. 2, Maple Leaf Oil and Gas Co., was shot and cleaned out last week and promises to be a good one. L. M. Haney No. 1 is holding regularly to its production of more than 100 barrels per day. No. 3 was cased Friday and will drill in next week, and as it is in direct line with the other development, on this lease another good one is expected.

V. P. Haney No. 1, upper tract, is pumping now and making a steady production of... barrels a day. V. P. Haney No. 1, lower tract started drilling Thursday. Both of these wells belong to the Gray

Eagle Oil and Gas Co. Several other locations have been made by this company and are to be drilled as soon as the derricks can be hauled and tools put on the ground.

The Cannel City Oil Co. has just finished a derrick on the Gose farm and drilling is to begin at once. The derrick is also built on the S. P. Nickoll farm on Stacy Fork, and the work of rigging up and moving the tools over there is in progress.

The Burton Fork Oil & Gas Co.'s new well, the Debord No. 2 is pumping now on making a good showing. Their Debord No. 1 is making a good, steady production. They will begin drilling the Debord No. 3 this week.

The Ohio Fuel Oil Co., now has four producing wells, of which the Whit No. 1 is the best. It is producing about 125 barrels a day. They are making preparations to drill several others and have the derricks up on the Walton No. 1 and Whit No. 3.

To date there have been drilled 30 wells, 20 of which are producing oil, 2 gas wells and 8 dry holes. This is considered an unusually good record considering the fact that the field is new, the first well, the K. B. C. Co. No. 1, not having been drilled a year yet, and the future looks bright for the field.—Licking Valley Courier.

OUR COUNTY'S NEEDS.

Facts and not fictions are our county's needs. Patriotism over partyism would prove a panacea for our county's ills. Bad roads is a disease, good roads are our greatest necessity. They are the nerve system of all progression and prosperity, the life blood of our very existence.

State aid, supplemented by National aid as planned and advocated by John McDyer is our only hope, our only salvation.

Men, be loyal, be loyal to yourselves, be loyal to your wife, to your sons and daughters, to your neighbors, to your county. Drown party strife by good roads enthusiasm. Organize yourselves into Good Roads Associations, invite all men into your councils, endorse McDyer and his State aid plan, and in a short while you will see the earth begin to move, the sound and vibration of the dynamite will be echoed and re-echoed from hill to hill, the deaf thud of the stonemason's pick, and the song of the concrete man's shovel will be heard in every valley. Roads will be shaped into perfection. Graded pikes will be stretched from valley to hill and from hill to valley, until every neighborhood shall have had what you, of all things most covet; a good road the year round. ENTHUSIAST.

IF MEALS HIT BACK AND STOMACH SOURS

"Pape's Diapiesin" ends Indigestion, Gas, Dyspepsia and Stomach Misery in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve your out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapiesin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapiesin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gas, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.

ELKHORN CITY.

Mrs. Mollie Wilson and daughter have gone to Coeburn, Va., and will spend about two weeks with her parents in Tazewell co.

The American Bridge Co., has added a number of new men to their force and will push the riveting of the bridge at Pool Point. There are about 20,000 rivets to be driven.

CAROLINE.

A GOOD ROADS SYSTEM.

"We urge the adoption of a comprehensive and efficient plan of administration that will improve, maintain and unify as one complete system the public thoroughfares of the country—to the end that we may secure:

"A national highway system.
"A state highway system.
"A county highway system.
"A township highway system.
"Each a district unit, yet all integral factors of a complete system of Good Roads Everywhere."
(From the Constitution of the Ohio Good Roads Federation.

"Roads that go somewhere are the only roads that any authority—national, or State, or local—has a genuine right to build. Local roads that form a system: State roads that form a system; national roads that form a system, will all, together, give the systematic development of good roads that Jackson county and the State of Missouri and the United States need."—(Kansas City Times.

What is true of "Jackson county and the State of Missouri" is true of 95 per cent. of our 120 counties and of the State of Kentucky as a whole. There are some few counties in the Bluegrass that have a county and intercounty system of good roads. These roads were built almost a century ago. These counties, as a result, have constituted and still constitute the richest agricultural counties in the State. A fact not to be forgot is that the roads in these counties were built with State aid. Hence the system and excellence of their construction. State aid will do as much for the other counties in Kentucky. In sixty-five of those counties there is not a mile of public-hill macadam road. Eighty-nine of them are pauper. Their present makeshift fashion of building roads in the same that prevailed in England in the days of Good Queen Bess.

It is idle to expect a system of good roads in those counties if the present plan is continued. Without such a system, those counties will remain pauper. Through State aid and only through State aid, which means State supervision as well, can a system of county and intercounty roads be built. Not the least of the imperative duties of the next General Assembly is the granting of such aid.—Courier Journal.

EVERY STREET IN LOUISA Has Its Share of the Profit That Kidney Suffers Seek.

Backache? Kidneys weak? Distressed with urinary ills? Want a reliable kidney remedy? Don't have to look far. Use what Louisa people recommend. Every street in Louisa has its cases.

Here's one Louisa Man's experience. Let George Waldeck, tailor of Cross-st., tell it.

Says Mr. Waldeck: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone who has kidney trouble and backache. My kidneys were irregular in action and the kidney secretions were unnatural. My back ached. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I used some. They stopped the pain and regulated the kidney action."

Mr. Waldeck is only one of many Louisa people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Waldeck had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. "CASCARETS" RELIEVE SICK, SOUR STOMACH.

Move acids, gases and clogged-up bowels from Stomach, Liver, Bowels—Cure Indigestion.

Get a 10-cent box now.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If tongue is coated or if cross, feverish, constipated give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath had, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again.

Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hurd back with contempt any other fig syrup.

GLEAM OF SUNSHINE

Story Concerning an Automobile Accident, Kidnaped Man and Stolen Heart.

By MILDRED CAROLINE GOODRIDGE.

"A pretty girl," mused Arthur Perry, and his heart warmed at the radiant smile bestowed upon him for such a mere trifle as restoring to the superior being in question a shopping list she had dropped.

It was on the main street of the bustling little city of Wellston. The young lady had a companion who seemed to be an elder married sister. The latter led a little child of four by the hand. As they passed to glance into a show window the younger lady gave the child a pretty toy of a ball to engross its attention. In doing so the scrap of paper in her hand fluttered away in the breeze. Arthur recovered it. Hence the grateful smile and his present reflective mood.

"But," soliloquized Arthur, "I had better get my mind on something more practical than pretty girls, although that one was a gleam of purest sunshine. I wonder where I am going to get a chance to eat my dinner?"

In his neat, though well-worn suit, and with that classic, intelligent face of his, he did not resemble a tramp, and yet here he found himself in a strange town without so much as a single cent in his pockets.

Two years previous, an expert linguist, Arthur had graduated from college. For a year he lectured in two institutions of learning. Then he had temporary charge of the foreign correspondence of a large importing firm. They failed, and with all his splendid education Arthur had been unable to secure a new position. He had learned that a large manufacturing concern in the city he was now in needed a man of his capabilities. He had spent his last dollar for railroad fare to find himself stranded, the prospective position having been filled.

He sighed as he gave a last thought to the pretty girl. He smiled as he glanced at the little cherub-faced child playing at the curb. The combination suggested home, love and happiness—what strangers to him during two lost, lonely years!

"Look out, there!"

Of a sudden the warning cry rang out shrilly. The driver of a cab stand-dressed an old cabman that she gleaned the information she desired.

"Yes, ma'am," said this individual. "I saw the accident. It was a flash, a pick-up and away they went. Kidnaped, ma'am."

"Why, what do you mean?" faltered the inexperienced Lillian.

"It was a rich man's machine that hit the brave young fellow, for I saw its number. You see, there's so much of this knocking down and hurting people nowadays that there's a regular system of spiriting the injured person away, mending him up and giving him a little money so as to get out of a big damage suit. See?"

Lillian did see, and her tender heart beat more pitifully than ever for the handsome young fellow made practically a prisoner, shut away from loving friends. Then her eyes brightened, and a brave resolution came into her fair face as she learned from the cabman the name of the owner of the automobile that had so nearly killed her little niece.

It was about ten o'clock the following morning when Lillian rang the door bell of the palatial home of Robert Barr, a retired city merchant. He looked puzzled as she was shown into his presence.

"Mr. Barr," she said plainly, as he courteously asked the object of her call, "I have come concerning a young man whom your automobile ran down and spirited away yesterday afternoon."

The man of wealth flushed consciously. He seemed embarrassed, partly frightened, Lillian fancied.

"I hope," he finally spoke in a guarded way, "that you have not come to make any trouble. I will be frank with you. I am having the injured young man given the very best of care in my own home, to avoid publicity and some preposterous damage suit, for my doctor says that he is not seriously injured."

"I am so glad to hear that," said Lillian, with a great hush of relief. "I imagine you must be the young lady he was constantly referring to in his first delirium," insinuated Mr. Barr. "The great burden of his thoughts seemed to be a beautiful miss with a little child."

"It could not have been myself," demurred Lillian, but she flushed faintly. "May I call each day, nurse him if I may, at least bring him flowers, fruits, books, so he may know grateful friends are thinking of him? Oh, sir, he risked his life to save our dear little one!"

"You must be some mystic fairy, Miss Trevor," said Mr. Barr a few days later to his now welcome caller. "How is that?" inquired Nellie.

"It was through you that young Perry came to me and now I find him an indispensable treasure. For years I have been seeking some expert in the languages to classify my large foreign library, and here he is at my hand well and happy."

"Even though he was kidnaped?" submitted Lillian, with a smile.

"Oh, that was a double deed that eventful day," declared Miss Trevor. "You mean?"

"That you had already kidnaped his heart."

And pretty Lillian flushed, and knew it was so within the ensuing week and was glad of it.

ARE NOT OF MOORISH BLOOD

Moros, Fanatical Fighters of the Philippines, Though Mohammedans, Belong to Malayan Race.

It is rather curious about those "Moros" that we are fighting in the Philippines. "Moro" means Moor and the name was applied to these people by the Spanish for the reason that, like the real Moors of North Africa, they are Mohammedans. To the mind of the Spanish settlers in the Philippines, any people who were also warlike were necessarily Moors.

As a matter of fact, these Moros are pure Malays. They came originally from the Malayann Islands, further to the south and west, and their ancestors were converted to Mohammedanism by missionaries of that faith who wandered to Malaysia from India. They possess all the fierceness of their brethren, the Malayan head hunters of Borneo; and it is well known that the Mohammedan religion has never had the effect to reduce or tame the native fierceness of any people. These Sulu Moros are among the most fanatical Mussulmans in the world. Centuries of force on the part of the Spaniards has had no effect whatever upon them.

The same rule which the Spaniards followed in calling these Malays Moros, they also applied in the name they gave to the pagan inhabitants of the Philippines, whom they called "Indians," after the natives not of India, but of Peru and Mexico, from which countries the Spanish invaded these distant islands. The Peruvians, Mexicans and natives of the West Indies were called Indians. They were brown, wild and pagan. Consequently, in the opinion of these conquistadores of limited ethnological knowledge, these people were, Indians. And "Indios" the pagan and Christianized natives of the Philippines have remained to this day to the Spaniards. We call them Filipinos; and in our spelling of this word, though not in that of the name of the islands themselves, we pay a tribute to the simplified Spanish orthography.

What They Read.

"May I borrow a volume of Emerson from the library?" asked the housemaid.

"I have no objection," answered her mistress. "While you are about it, bring me 'Lady Jezebel's Divorce.'"

KENTUCKY NEIGHBORS.

The corner stone of the Salyersville Christian church was laid Saturday.

Whitesburg, Ky., Sept. 21.—Triplets, two girls and a boy, have been born to the wife of John C. Boggs, of the Pound River section, east of here in Virginia, making five children at two births.

Petter Gollhue, a miner employed at Hitehins, was brought to Ashland Saturday evening on the A. C. & L., and removed to the King's Daughters' Hospital, suffering from a broken back, caused by a fall of slate Saturday morning.

Owingsville.—The work on the railroad which is to run from this point to Olympia and there connect with the C. and O. is well under way. Grading has been done for a considerable distance, and the track layers will soon begin their part of the work.

A young woman, about 20 years of age, who gave her name as Mary Heberlin, and who said she had been employed at a restaurant on 15th street, Ashland, swallowed bichloride of mercury tablets at the police headquarters, Ironton, Sunday night, and but for prompt and efficient medical attention would have accomplished her purpose, which is said to have been suicide.

The oil well which has been drilled at Oil Springs, created some little excitement for some time before the well was completed, but has turned out to be a dry hole. The oil promoters of this section are preparing to drill another well near the dry hole. It is said that there were good indications of oil at the well just completed and that by changing just a little to northwest, a better chance of a good strike can be had.—Paintsville Herald.

This week will witness the completion of the Jennies creek railroad. The grading was completed some time ago and the delay in delivery of the steel rails has handicapped the work.

The steel has all been laid and it is said that the road will begin operation next week for accommodation of the public. A rate schedule has been issued which is said to be excessive. We hope to publish just what the rates will be next week.—Paintsville Herald.

Morehead, Ky., Sept. 26.—In a good roads meeting of citizens of Rowan-co., in the courthouse here to-day, plans were outlined and adopted for rebuilding the old State road through the county from the Bath line to the Carter-co. line, a distance of sixteen miles. An executive board had been organized at a preliminary meeting.

The departments of labor and public utility were created with H. H. Yount, manager the Freestone Company, in charge of the department of labor; Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, superintendent Rowan county schools, in charge of the department of public utility, and B. S. Wilson, representative from the Bath-Rowan district, in charge of the soliciting department.

Whitesburg.—One of the antebellum buildings of Whitesburg, nearly a century old has been razed to make a place for a modern business block. The building stood immediately below the Central Hotel on Lower Main-st., and history is closely linked with the old house, since it was the headquarters of Gen. Humphrey Marshall and his men during the Civil War. Gen. Marshall marched from this building when he went to Pound Gap to meet the forces under Gen. Garfield. Only one other antebellum building is left here—the R. O. Brashears home nearby, which is soon to meet a similar fate to give away to a modern residence.

The hotel at Swanga Springs, near Hazel Green, of which Mrs. Hal Smith was the proprietress, was entirely destroyed by fire Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. The fire started in one of the lower rooms and in twenty minutes the building was nothing but a heap of ashes.

Two babies were asleep in the upper rooms when the fire was discovered, but were rescued by their half-crazed mothers, and no lives were lost, which is considered almost a miracle, as there were about twenty-five people staying at the hotel.

The guests departed for their respective homes with only the clothing they were wearing at the time of the fire.

The building was an old frame structure with but little protection against fire. The guests lost many valuables and several found they had left their purses behind them in their flight.

Swanga Springs had quite a successful season and she was expecting a large number of guests for the remainder of the fall season, who now, of course, could not find a place to stay, as the hotel was the only available building.

Morehead.—A special train was run from Louisville to Olive Hill over the C. & O. railroad last night to bring Dr. Dabney, of Louisville, to the relief of the little child of Dr. A. J. Hillman, of Olive Hill. The child will be taken back to Louisville on the special.

Whitesburg.—While exploring some of the caves in the Cumberland mountains C. H. Smith, who is employed by the Consolidation Coal Company at Burdine, near Jenkins, discovered some gold nuggets, according to information that has just reached here. The caves where the find was made lie back in the mountains near the Virginia border line, about one mile from Burdine.

On Wells Hill, just west of town Miss Elizabeth Wells, aged eighty-five years, died Sunday, Sept. 7. The remains were interred in the family burying ground Monday. Deceased is survived by one sister, Miss Sally Wells, aged 88, and a brother, Jacob Wells, aged about 70. The three, neither of whom had ever married, had lived on one farm all their lives and constituted one of the most remarkable families in Eastern Kentucky.—West Liberty Courier.

After more than fifty years of effort and costly failure Owingsville is at last to have a railroad. Tuesday morning rails were laid in order to distribute the nine carloads of material that arrived at Olympia the day before. It is probable that work will begin with all the hands that can be obtained early next week. Whether or not this road will meet the hopes of its promoters when built is for the future to determine.—Owingsville Outlook.

Whitesburg, Ky., Sept. 11.—John Spurgeon, aged sixteen, of Beaver creek, met the father of E. Brennan, manager of the Consolidation Coal company, on a road near Meltoberns and, at the point of a revolver, forced him to give up $10.

Spurgeon then went to a school at Potter's Fork and shot around among the students, breaking up the school. He next went to the home of Creed McFall and threatened the life of Mrs. McFall and her three small children. Mrs. McFall, who ran screaming from her home, attracted a party of railroad engineers near by, who after much difficulty, arrested Spurgeon. He was turned over to Judge Potter at McRoberts and was brought to jail here.

OUR SCHOOL DEPARTMENT.

The teachers are requested to have the pupils in each division make something and save it for the "Italy." We hope that every school will do something along this line.

Each teacher should have a Kentucky history in his or her school library. Some general questions will be from it on last three month's work.

Every teacher should provide himself or herself with a copy of "Writing in English." The month's work in Grammar is partly from it and you could make your work more interesting by using one and getting the pupils to buy them.

The questions on reading are from 1912. Course of Study. This will give more time for Supplementary work. Use "Carpenter's Geographical Readers." E. L. & D. C. B.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

Mrs. Susie Ferrell, wife of Vinson Ferrell, died very suddenly at her home in Chapmanville last week after a slight illness of about 2 weeks, and was buried Sunday afternoon at the home of her parents on Big creek.—Logan Democrat.

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 22.—Cad Mooney, a young farmer, while squirrel hunting near Chesapeake, Ohio, in company with his brother, fired at a squirrel darting along an old log and killed Albert Mooney with shot, inflicting wounds from which the brother will die. Both eyes were destroyed.

John Matthews, employed as a cook at the Y. M. C. A., fell under a train in the yards Wednesday and his leg was so badly crushed that amputation was necessary. It is said that Matthews had been drinking. He was taken to the Williamson hospital and reports from there Friday were that he will recover.—Mingo Republican.

Gas was found in the well being drilled on Buffalo creek by Col. F. L. Schoew when the tools reached the Indian sand last Saturday. Several exaggerated reports of the strike were circulated and great excitement prevailed for a time. It was told on the streets that the gas pressure was too strong to be controlled and that efforts to plug the well had failed.—Logan Democrat.

A. B. Kell, a contractor, is in the county jail at Welch awaiting preliminary hearing on a very grave charge, the second to be preferred against him within the week.

On Monday Kell was arrested by county authorities on a charge of criminal assault, proffered by a server, on whom the alleged assault was said to have been perpetrated. On this charge Kell waived preliminary examination and was ordered to await the action of the grand jury giving bond in the sum of $2,500, as required by the hearing the case. After the release of Kell he returned to his work at Kimball, only again to be arrested on a charge rumored to be even more serious, and the definite nature of which the authorities have not announced.—Mingo Republican.

Huntington, Sept. 12.—To prevent mob violence in Williamson, W. Va., James Stokes, negro, accused of robbing and fatally wounding H. C. Tanner, white, was brought to Huntington at 10:30 o'clock last night and lodged in the county jail.

Tanner, an old man, is dying, according to telegraph reports received here late last night. He identified Stokes as his assailant.

Tanner was shot twice, one bullet striking him in the face and the other in the back, severing the spinal chord. He is paralyzed below the point where the bullet struck, and physicians at the Williamson hospital state that he cannot recover.

A. A. Karnes, former C. and O. baggage man, who was some time ago indicted at Huntington on a charge of stealing baggage in interstate commerce, entered a plea of guilty to stealing a pair of opera glasses from a suit case entrusted to his care as a baggage man and was sentenced to one year and one day in the West Virginia penitentiary.

Karnes had been for many years a trusted employee of the railroad company and his arrest several months ago created quite a sensation. It was alleged at the time that he had carried on his operations upon an extensive scale, and large quantities of goods alleged to have been stolen by him were later recovered by the officers from his home in Huntington.

The West Virginia Pulp & Paper Co., Covington, Va., has completed the big dam it has been constructing on Stony River, a tributary of the Potomac, some miles above its pulp and paper mills at Lake Me. This dam is in Grant-co., W. Va., in the Allegheny Mountains, 3400 feet above sea level. It is to store water during the rainy season for release during the low-water season, so as to make the flow of the Potomac at Lake uniform throughout the year. Construction required about 600,000 feet of lumber, 1064 carloads of native stone crushed for concrete, 584,000 pounds of steel for reinforcing concrete work, and more than 16,000 barrels of cement. The dam will form a lake three miles long and one mile wide at its widest point, covering 400 acres. It will store about 1,500,000,000 gallons, enough to operate the pulp and paper mills from five to six months. The dam was built by Amburns Hydraulic Construction Co., Boston.

During the session of the special committee of the United States Senate, appointed to investigate conditions in the Paint and Cabin Creek coal districts of West Virginia which was concluded here a few days ago, coal operators from West Virginia undertook to place responsibility for the strikes in the latter part of 1912 at the door of coal operators of Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois, working in conjunction with officials of the United Mine Workers.

They endeavored to prove that the differences between the operators and miners of their state were not due to local disputes of work, or anything of that sort.

That this would be the attitude of the West Virginia operators when they came to Washington for the adjourned hearing was indicated while the special committee was conducting its inquiry in the coal regions of the state.

POULTRY

ROOST CLOSET FOR POULTRY

Considerable Stress Laid on Curtains in Front of House at Maine Experiment Station.

In the curtain-front type of poultry house used at the Maine experiment station a feature of the original plan on which considerable stress was laid was the canvas curtain in front of the roosts.

This curtain, together with the back wall of the house and the droppings board under the roosts, formed a closet in which the birds were shut up at night during cold weather. When the curtain-front house was first devised it was thought essential to provide such a closet to conserve the body heat of the birds during the cold nights when the temperature might go well below zero. Experience has shown, however, that this was a mistake. Actual test shows that the roosting closet is of no advantage, even in such a severe climate as that of Orono. On the contrary, the birds certainly thrive better without the roost curtain than with it. It has been a general observation among users of the curtain front type of house that when the roost curtains are used the birds are particularly susceptible to colds. It is not hard to understand why this should be so. The air in a roosting closet when it is opened in the morning is plainly bad. The fact that it is warm in no way offsets physiologically the evils of its lack of oxygen and excess of carbon dioxide, ammoniacal vapors, and other exhalations from the bodies of the birds.

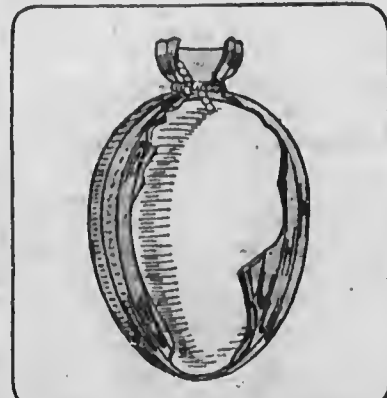

For some time past it has been felt that the roosting closet was at least unnecessary, if not in fact a positive evil. Consequently the time of beginning to close the roost curtain in the fall has been each year longer delayed. Finally, in the fall of 1910, it was decided not to use these curtains at all during the winter. Consequently they were taken out of the house, or spiked to the roof, as the case might be. The winter of 1910-11 was a severe one. On several occasions the temperature dropped to 30 degrees below zero. Yet during this winter the mortality was exceptionally low and the egg production exceptionally high.

In view of this experience the station has decided to discontinue the use of the roost curtain. It would seem to be generally undesirable or at least unnecessary.

Safety Egg Holder.

It may be opened and closed without tearing it, says the Popular Mechanics. The holder is adapted for sending eggs safely by parcel post, or carrying them with the least possibility of breakage.

Eggs shipped by express are often quered by baggage smashers. The well-fed and well-cared for fowl is the one that brings the profit. When the old hen begins to lay and whip her chicks it's time to wend them.

Fall chickens find a good market as roasters during January, February and March.

The poultry industry is growing beyond the hopes of its most radical friends.

Egg shells may be utilized a second time if crushed and turned over to the chickens.

The brooder has not, as yet, reached the stage of perfection that the incubator has.

Lack of moisture in the incubator means tough shells and dead chicks at hatching time.

To successfully use eggs in the artificial hatches one must, if possible, secure eggs of the highest vitality.

An egg laid in November and December will bring twice as much money as the one laid in March or April.

While heavy laying is as a rule desirable, phenomenal egg records are not a guarantee of strong, rugged offspring.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught.

Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

ROAD BUILDING

TEXAS BUILDING GOOD ROADS

Over Four Hundred Miles in Course of Construction—Many Counties Are Interested.

According to reports recently compiled for the consideration of the Texas Welfare commission, there are now in course of construction 437 miles of good roads within the state, with a prospect of double this amount during the next 12 months. On its face this looks like a large percentage of improved highways for Texas, but on an area basis it is a small showing, and to secure the percentage of mileage of good roads that the haunter state, Connecticut, has we will have to build 525,000 miles more.

Several of the largest undertakings of the south are now contemplated in the state, and one or two have taken tangible form, writes Ida M. Darden, in the Houston Post. The Red river-to-the-gulf highway, the much talked of and long hoped for trans-state road, when built, will have a total mileage of 630, and will serve more than fifty million acres of the state's most desirable agricultural land. Two-thirds of the counties along the route of this proposed highway are now building their links of the great thoroughfare. It has been estimated by the Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's association, who keeps close tab on road building throughout the state, that this highway will be completed by 1914, at the present rate of construction. It is held that the improvement of roads adds $10,000 per mile to contiguous property, and on this basis the building of the river-to-the-gulf highway will give a net increase in property values to property along this roadway of $400,000,000.

The counties through which this highway will pass are Galveston, Harris, Waller, Brazos, Robertson, Falls, Limestone, McLennan, Hill, Navarro, Johnson, Ellis, Tarrant, Dallas, Denton, Collin, Grayson and Cooke, the road to be double-tracked from Hearne north.

Another highway of state importance is the Dallas-Texas-Kansas highway, beginning at Dallas and passing through the counties of Collin, Grayson, Fannin, Lamar, Red River and Bowie, which will cost approximately $600,000. There are 2104 miles of public highways in these counties, and the building of the trunk line will probably result in the improvement of the entire mileage of the counties, as well as stimulate road building in counties adjoining the project.

GRADE HALF MILE FOR $7.50

Riley County, Kansas, Outfit Did the Work in One Day—Three Men Were Necessary.

One traction engine, one road grader, and three men graded a half mile of road in one day. This was accomplished on a Riley county road at a cost of $7.50, says Kansas Industries. The engine, running on kerosene, consumed fuel at the rate of 20 gallons a day, at a cost of 7 1/2 cents a gallon, cost $1.50. Three men were necessary to do the work—one to run the engine and two on the grader.

With the exception of the engineer, the work can be handled easily by laborers. The cost of road grading ranges from $15 to $50 a mile, depending on the soil and condition of the road, the width graded, and the price of labor.

Grass and Live Stock.

Grass and live stock should go hand in hand. There is no farm, in my judgment, which, if properly handled and kept at least one-half of the time in grasses and clovers, and gradually brought under a proper system of rotation, would not produce more, in fact, double the crops which it now does, and yet constantly be growing better and better.

Chickens and Hogs.

If a woman can hate anything she hates a chicken-eating hog. The chickens don't know the difference between that kind and the other, so keep them apart, and keep peace in the family.

A Good Thing at Times Not to Know Where Your Next Meal Is Coming From

In the October American Magazine David Grayson, author of "Adventures in Contentment," writes a sketch entitled "The Friendly Road" in which he describes a tramp and philosophizes on tramping. The following is an extract:

"In a book I read not long ago the writer provides in his imaginary perfect state of society a class of leaders known as Samurais. And from time to time it is the custom of these Samurais to cut themselves loose from the crowding world of men, and with packs on their backs go away alone to far places in the deserts or on Arctic ice caps. I am convinced that every man needs some such change as this, an opportunity to think things out, to get a new grip on life, and a new bold on God. But not for me the Arctic ice cap or the desert! I choose the Friendly Road—and all the common people who travel in it or live along it—I choose even the busy city at the end of it.

"I assure you, friend, that it is a wonderful thing for a man to cast himself freely for a time upon the world, not knowing where his next meal is coming from, nor where he is going to sleep for the night. It is a surprising readjuster of values, I paid my way I think, throughout my pilgrimage; but I discovered that 'amped metal' is far from being the world's only true coin. As a matter of fact, there are many things that men prize more highly—because they are rarer and more precious."

Safest Laxative for Women.

VERGIL GRAY DIED LAST THURSDAY

Vergil Gray, 30, son of Dr. I. E. Gray, of this city, died last Thursday at noon from the effects of a long-standing pulmonary trouble. In fact, he can scarcely be said to have been well a single day in six years, or possibly longer. The disease recently took a more serious turn, and he was obliged to remain in doors, although he never took to his bed, and he passed away sitting in his chair.

The funeral and interment were deferred until Saturday to await the arrival of relatives from Bowling Green.

He leaves a wife and infant son.

NEW JAIL STARTED THIS WEEK

Walter T. Gurnutt, to whom the contract was awarded last week for the building of the new jail and jailer's residence, began Monday on the work of excavating for the basement and foundation of the jail. These two buildings will be erected on the spot where the old jail house now stands.

NEW HOTEL FOR PIKEVILLE

VERDICT FOR $8000.

After a legal battle covering over four years, a verdict was rendered by the jury last Friday morning in the case of W. C. Small against the Borderland Coal Co., in favor of Small, for the sum of $8000 for the death of his son, a mlaer, who was killed by a falling slate while at work in the company's mines in the year 1909. Attorney Roscoe Van over and M. C. Kirk, the latter of Paintsville, represented Small, who was acting as administrator of his son's estate, and A. E. Auxier, of this city and attorney Shearer, of Williamson, W. Va., represented the company.

The case will be appealed.

TWO ROADS CONTEND FOR RIGHT OF WAY.

A sharp contention has arisen over which road shall be entitled to build a branch line up the left fork of Beaver creek in Floyd-co., the B. & O. or C. & O. The C. & O. has already built a line up the right fork of the creek, and is now seeking to take from the B. & O. its right of an opening through the rich coal territory that lines the banks of what is generally known as Left Beaver. Both companies are now busy in buying real estate along the proposed route, and both have a large corps of engineers at work making the preliminary survey for the location of each road. This is expected to wind up in a clash of litigation before the Floyd county circuit court.

It is an evident fact that the C. & O. has been forced to do all the building or other improvements it has done in the Sandy Valley through fear that other roads would take the first step and bar them out; and this is thought to be only another step in the direction of that policy.

It is certain, however, that a road will be built up the left fork of Beaver at once.

BAPTISTS HOLD TWO ASSOCIATIONS.

The two branches of the Baptist church (the Hard-Shells and the Free Will) are each holding an Association in the county this week. The Hard-Shells association is holding forth on the Caney tributary of Shelby creek, and the Free Will order is holding its association on the Brushy fork of John's creek.

A number of Martha-co. visitors who, it is said, were on rather too friendly terms with old John Barleycorn, engaged in a free-for-all fight last Saturday morning on the association grounds, in which several other Pike-co. attendants were fatally involved; and the fight lasting all day, many sore heads were carried away at nightfall. Several have been so badly beaten up that they have had to keep to their beds during the remainder of the religious festival.

PRISONERS TAKEN TO THE PEN.

Sheriff H. Pauley left Pikeville Tuesday morning for Frankfort taking with him four men sentenced to the penitentiary. These prisoners were: Oscar Tibbs, a deaf mute, charged with unlawful detention, 2 to 7 years.

Mitchell Hobbs, charged with horse-stealing, 2 to 10 years.

Itaphael Rose, Italian, charged with murder, 2 to 21 years.

James Busting, colored, charged with murder, 2 to 21 years.

GRADE NEARLY FINISHED.

The C. C. & O. grade through the Brooks is practically finished, and only the big Sandy Ridge tunnel, on the Virginia side yet remains to be completed; this will not be before late next spring.

On the tunnel job, a shaft has been driven down from the top of the Ridge, and by this means two extra crews are lowered to work underground in each direction. That is to say, the contractors are working the tunnel in four different places. This secures the greatest possible speed in first driving the heading through; when that is done, cars will remove the body of the tunnel very quickly.

SOUTH ELKHORN SOLD.

For a consideration sold to run into six figures, the Bowman Realty Co., of Huntington, W. Va., purchased a tract of land containing between 75 and 100 acres, and known as South Elkhorn, from the Elkhorn Land and Improvement Co. of this city last Monday. Mr. A. N. Thompson, the purchasing agent for the Bowman Realty Co., and Mr. W. H. Flanery, of Catlettsburg, a stockholder of the Elkhorn Land Improvement Co., returned to Pikeville Monday after having spent several days in Elkhorn City, and a conference was held with the board of directors, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Polley, Jas. Hatcher, E. D. Stephenson, Mr. Flanery and others, and immediately a contract was closed providing for the sale.

The purchasing company will divide the tract into lots and offer them for sale at public auction at an early date.

SOCIETY.

The most elaborate dance of the season will be given this evening in the spacious dining hall of the Pike hotel for the guests of Miss Katherine Mays, the Misses Ellen Crosthwaite and Josephine Hughes of Frankfort, and Mrs. Roy Wilhoit of Louisville. Several members of a Columbus, O., orchestra will be present to furnish music, and a large number of guests, including parties from neighboring towns, are expected to be present.

Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Reece gave a Five Hundred party at their home on Scott-av. Thursday evening in honor of the Misses Crosthwaite-Hughes and Mrs. Wilhoit. A number of guests were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Robt. L. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hailey, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McVay, of Prestonsburg, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Magruder, Mrs. Parks Mrs. William H. Vest, Miss Kathryn Mays, the three guests-of-honor, Miss Harendou, Messrs. J. P. Muman, James Sowards, E. D. Stephenson, Charles and J. P. Hobson, Jr.

At the close of the games a delightful three-course lunch was served.

Among those present were: Misses Grace Chatfield, Alnorva Scott, Lotie Corbin, her father, James M. Sowards, her brother Everett H. Sowards, and Mrs. John M. Smith.

DIPHTHERIA MAY CLOSE SCHOOLS, THEATERS, ETC.

An epidemic of diphtheria among the children of Pikeville is feared. Six cases have developed, and the board of health is seriously contemplating stringent measures to prevent a further spread of it, if other cases develop, by closing all schools, theaters, churches and all other means of public meeting. This will not be done, however, unless further developments render it imperative. A number of children have been sent into the country as a means of safety, and all others have been cautioned against going on the streets.

The physicians in charge are of the opinion that the situation is well under control, and that stringent measures may not be necessary.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

H. M. Runyon and little daughter Eloise, of Catlettsburg, spent last Sunday in Pikeville.

Miss Rebecca Ceell has gone to New York to visit Mrs. C. M. Parsons and daughter Kate. Miss Ceell will very probably spend the winter there.

The autumnal equinox brought a cold wave last Saturday that set Pike-co. shivering, and for three days thereafter a now industry sprang into existence and did a land-office business—that of setting up stoves. On those three days it was just wonderful to see the victims of frigid weather work. But just as they got everything in ship-shape, the equinox went its way, and we now have swell summer weather again.

Dr. Z. A. Thompson has been very sick for several days.

Attorney W. H. Flanery, of Catlettsburg is here attending the circuit court this week.

A new street sweeping apparatus has arrived and will be put to work at once.

Forest Childres and family visited home folks recently.

Reuben Taylor, who has been down with a carbuncle on his knee for some time, is able to be out.

Mrs. R. Taylor and Mrs. Bill Sherman called on Mrs. T. C. Leslie Sunday.

Purkey Leslie is on the sick list.

Don't Sleep Well No Good Reason Just Can't Sleep

Some people can't sleep. There seems to be no special reason. They have no disease of the nervous system. Digestion is fairly good. Their habits are pretty good. They may smoke a little or drink a little, yet their habits are fair. Still they can't sleep well.

Just a little unbalanced in the nerve centers. That is all. They should have a little "righting up."

A tonic will generally do this. The right sort of a tonic. Peruna is exactly this tonic. Digestion is hurried by Peruna. The stomach is empty and ready to rest for the night. The circulation is equalized. The brain is relieved of all congestions and irritations.

The Peruna acts on every blood vessel in the system. It acts on all of the nerve centers. One begins to sleep and hardly knows why.

Take a teaspoonful to one tablespoonful of Peruna before each meal. Sometimes another tablespoonful at bedtime is necessary, where the sleeplessness is very pronounced.

Just try it, neighbor. You will be glad if you do. One bottle will convince you. Peruna is no sleep medicine. It is not a nerve. It contains no narcotics. It is nothing of that sort. It is simply a regulative tonic.

Every home should be provided with this latest edition of the "Mills of Life," sent free by the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Miss Augusta Johnson, of Banner, is staying with her sister this week.

Miss Bertha Waddington and Della Kendrick went to Beaver creek Sunday.

Mrs. Marlon Sherman visited her father at Anxler Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. S. K. Burchett and children are visiting relatives in Lincoln-co. this week.

Hillery Bruak went to Cincinnati Friday.

ONLY ONE.

NO POTATO FAMINE.

While potatoes will not be a drag on the market this year, consumers need not fear that there will not be enough to meet demands. In a special report on the potato outlook, L. C. Corbett, of the Department of Agriculture, declared that while the total harvest will be less than last year, it will be sufficient to supply normal needs.

The shrinkage in this year's crop is ascribed to the heavy hold-over crop from last season, the low price and the general demoralization of the potato trade last autumn, which caused reduction in acreage.

Indications are that Maine will produce the largest crop ever recorded, while Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota will harvest a normal crop. The yield in Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York and Ohio promises to be light.

The average condition of the crop is ten per cent. below the 10-year average, but about ten per cent. above the condition for the same season in 1911.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR
FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and luxuriant at once—No More falling hair.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderluc.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fash, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Kuewilton's Danderluc at any drug store or toilet counter, apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderluc. If eventually—why not now?

Hot bottles at Conley's store. Keeps liquids hot or cold seventy-two hours.

The General Store

No matter how small a store or where located, it should have Bell telephone service. If located in the woods or mountains, there is a greater need for the telephone.

Telephone service links the out-of-the-way places to civilization. It provides a means of getting help in the case of fire, or other emergency.

Have you telephone service in your general store?
